I have a host family in Massachusetts I've been communicating with for more than 20 years from the time I was a student. Now, they are like my real family. I grew up in the countryside, so I love nature and animals. Of course, I love people, too!

What are your hopes and plans for the future? I'd like to raise a happy family with my husband and children, and be able to talk about anything. If our family bond is strong, everything should be okay wherever we live and whatever happens!

What message would you like to send to your future spouse? Let's make our life happy and filled with love by supporting each other and sharing the good as well as the bad!
