Hobbies/Interests: Traveling (inside Japan and overseas), going to various places, feeling the differences of culture and meeting many people. Those experiences broaden my mind, and improving myself is fun. I also like visiting hot springs and spending time relaxing. In my everyday life, I spend time by watching movies, reading, and recently I started learning cooking. In the future, for my partner, I'd like to cook a lot of tasty dishes.

Do you want children someday? Yes No

Do you already have children? Yes No

Do you smoke? Yes No

How would you describe your personality? People say I look like a steady person, but also have some goofy aspect and am fun to talk with. I think I'm serious and sometimes act tough, but I'm basically shy.

What is most important to you? I think meeting various kinds of people is important, especially the meeting with my future partner. I'm looking forward to it very much.

What countries have you been to? USA, France, Italy, Korea, Australia, Thailand, Singapore, Indonesia, Hong Kong, Macao

Is there anything about you that your future partner would want to know before becoming involved with you? Yes No

I think living overseas in the future is also good. I'm not good at English and am studying it step by step.

What are your hopes and plans for the future? I want to get married, have children and raise a warm family. By respecting each other as persons, I'd like to support each other and share enjoyable things together.

What message would you like to send to your future spouse? We can spend time together naturally and become more brilliant by seeing each other... I hope we can establish a relationship like that.
