How would you describe your personality? I am said from my friends well in this way.

"You are always able to think hard things of your friends." In addition, "You listen to my problem well and thank you very much because I face each other seriously." I think that I have one's thought. And my personality is bright.

What is most important to you? To find love and happiness with my future partner. To be able to understand each other even in the difficult moments.

What countries have you been to? Australia

Is there anything about you that your future partner would want to know before becoming involved with you? Yes No — I like a sedate individual and a tender person. These deserve the respect to the person. The heart of the respect turns into my beloved feeling.

What are your hopes and plans for the future? I want to enjoy that I travel with my future partner.

What message would you like to send to your future spouse? Let's make a happy family together!

My age is young, but the feeling to want to marry is strong. In addition, I think that it can be to a good wife and mother because I calm down more mentally than my age. And I think that good child care may be possible because I learn education.
